Supporting independent businesses

Sessional and full-time suites opposite University Hospital Geelong are available now. You run your own business; we look after the premises, reception and everyday running around it. Additional suites open next door in 2027.

Focus on your clients. We take care of what sits around them.

Running a business involves far more than seeing clients. Behind every appointment sit added responsibilities: reception, staffing, cleaning, internet, security, maintenance and a stream of small premises issues. At TMHG, they are already taken care of.

You stay in control of

- Your clients and client relationships
- Your client records and systems
- Your business name, branding and phone number
- Your fees and service model
- Your referral relationships
- How you run and grow your business

TMHG takes care of

- ✓ Consulting premises and building outgoings
- ✓ Client welcome, with reception support to suit you
- ✓ Shared waiting room, kitchen and bathrooms
- ✓ Electricity, water, internet and data
- ✓ Cleaning, maintenance and repairs
- ✓ Security and 24/7 practitioner access
- ✓ EFTPOS, HICAPS and claiming support
- ✓ The day-to-day building issues

Running your own premises means managing everything outside your appointments: staff, wages, and cover for leave and sickness, phone systems, building issues and maintenance, suppliers and deliveries. The little things soon become big things and take time away from your clients. At TMHG, we take care of all of it.

Confidentiality is a priority at TMHG, for your clients and for your business.

From one practitioner to a larger team.

A business community

TMHG has supported independent medical, allied health, wellness, beauty and aesthetic businesses since 2017. Many of our tenants are long term and have grown with us, as our location and support have given them stability, strong client relationships and a place to call home. The building also offers real opportunities for professional connection, collaboration and referrals.

Choose the way you want to work.

Support around your business, without taking it over.

Choose the level of support that suits your business. Use only what you need; if you have your own administration, we simply provide the welcome.

Meet and greet

A friendly, professional welcome for every client. First impressions matter.

Reception on your days

Welcome, payments and claims into your account, rebooking and enquiries.

All inclusive

Calls in your business name, diary, inbox, referral and admin support.

Confidentiality comes first

Your clients trust you with sensitive information, and you trust us with your business. We treat both with care and discretion.

Your clients: handled with discretion at reception, on the phone and in the waiting room

Your business: your client lists, fees, referrals and business information stay private

Your systems: reception accesses your software only as you authorise

Full-time tenants
